

Advantage membership benefits provided by
Cambridge University Press
Terms and Conditions

1. The Benefits

- 1.1. The benefits consist of materials and online methodology courses for teachers provided by Cambridge University Press – the official sponsor of the Advantage member scheme – and which are available to active Advantage membership holders in Europe at participating British Council exam centres.
 - 1.1.1. A book title from a selection of the Cambridge University press 2021 ELT catalogue. Offer applies to one member per academic year and is limited to one title per member.
 - 1.1.2. A complementary online teaching methodology course on the Cambridge Learning Management System (the CLMS) – Understanding Assessment. Offer applies to one teacher per member per academic year until limit is reached.
 - 1.1.3. A complementary online teaching methodology course on the Cambridge Learning Management System (the CLMS) – to choose from the available Testing and Assessment courses. Offer applies to one teacher per member per academic year until limit is reached.
- 1.2. The exact benefits may differ at participating exam centres.

2. Territory and eligibility

- 2.1. The benefits are open to teachers aged 18 years and over at active Advantage membership institutions at the following British Council exams centres in Europe: Bulgaria, Cyprus, Czech Republic, France, Greece, Netherlands, Italy, Poland, Portugal, Romania and Spain.
- 2.2. The availability of each of the benefits is limited and specific to each participating British Council exam centre and will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis during the Dates in accordance with section 3 of these Terms and Conditions.
- 2.3. Access to the benefits is free of charge although participants are responsible for their own costs of connecting to the Internet.

3. Dates

- 3.1. The opening date is 01 September 2021 and the closing date is 31 August 2022. (Please note: you will be able to order your book title of choice via an online form provided by your local exams team between 01 October 2021 and 31 May 2022). Any online order form to sign-up to the benefits which is received before the opening date or after the closing date will not be processed. The British Council accepts no responsibility whatsoever for any technical failure or malfunction or any other problem with any system, server, provider or otherwise that may result in access to the benefits being lost, delayed or not properly registered.
- 3.2. Teachers can sign-up to the benefits via online order forms which will be processed and verified by local British Council exam staff in the country of the participant. Details of the sign-up dates for specific benefits will be provided by local British Council exam centres.
- 3.3. Eligible participants will be notified about how to access the benefits during the Dates of the benefits. This notification will be made to the email address provided by the participant when signing up to benefit in accordance with section 4 of these Terms and Conditions. In this notification, the British Council will inform the participant of how to redeem the benefit and of any additional information or steps required to enable the British Council to provide them with the benefit. The British Council reserves the right to award the relevant benefit to another participant if the benefit is not claimed within four weeks after such notification.
- 3.4. Benefits not used by the end of the academic year will expire and cannot be carried forward to the following year.

4. How to redeem the benefits

- 4.1. The benefits will be promoted through the British Council webpage: www.britishcouncil.org/advantage-cambridge-teachers.
- 4.2. To redeem each of the benefits participants must access the British Council webpage and online order forms provided to them in notifications from their local British Council exam centre. Participants will be required indicate their acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
- 4.3. The benefits are personal to eligible Advantage membership holders and cannot be transferred to any third party. Benefits cannot be exchanged for money or any other goods or services.
- 4.4. The British Council accepts no responsibility for failure to notify participants or failure to deliver the benefits where such failure results from the provision of inaccurate contact details by the participants or from the acts or omissions of any third party (including, without limitation, any internet or postal service provider) and shall have no liability to any participant if it is prevented from or delayed in delivering any aspect of the benefits by acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control.
- 4.5. The British Council does not offer any insurance in connection with the benefits. Each participant may arrange their own insurance in respect of the benefit, if applicable.

5. Data Protection

- 5.1. The British Council will use the information that you are providing in connection with processing your online course registration. The information you provide will be transferred to Cambridge University Press for the purpose of allowing access to the online course. The legal basis for processing your information is your consent.
- 5.2. For the purposes of this course, the data controller is the British Council, 1 Redman Place, Stratford, London, E20 1JQ, UK. We will share your information with our data processor; Cambridge University Press, University Printing House, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge, CB2 8BS, United Kingdom for the following purposes:
 - 5.2.1. communicating with participants to answer their queries about the benefits
 - 5.2.2. to organise delivery of the book titles
 - 5.2.3. to organise access to the Cambridge Learning Management System (CLMS)
 - 5.2.4. to invite participants to attend optional webinars in relation to the benefits
- 5.3. The British Council complies with data protection law in the UK and laws in other countries that meet internationally accepted standards. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to complain to a privacy regulator.
- 5.4. You have the right to ask for a copy of the information we hold on you, and the right to ask us to correct any inaccuracies in that information. If you have concerns about how we have used your personal information, you also have the right to complain to a privacy regulator.
- 5.5. Participants can exercise their rights to access their personal data held by the British Council and withdraw their consent to the processing of their personal data at any time by sending an email, accompanied by a scanned photocopy of their valid passport or other photo identification to IGDisclosures@britishcouncil.org.
- 5.6. For detailed information, please refer to the privacy section of our website or contact your local British Council office.
- 5.7. The British Council and Cambridge University Press will keep your information for a period of 7 years from the time of collection. After this period your information will be deleted.

6. General

- 6.1. The British Council may disqualify or refuse to accept the online forms to redeem the benefits of any participant which does not meet the eligibility criteria in section 2 or does not otherwise comply with these Terms and Conditions.
- 6.2. These Terms and Conditions shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of England and Wales and the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any disputes or claims (including, without limitation, non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the benefits in this Offer.

7. Termination and amendments

- 7.1. The British Council and Cambridge University Press reserves the right to introduce amendments to these Terms and Conditions and to review the benefits each year. The benefits may be terminated at any time with three months' notice.

8. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions

- 8.1. By participating in this Offer, participants are deemed to have accepted these Terms and Conditions.