Aptis for Teachers

The growing demand for English in education and the workplace is driving language policies in many countries towards introducing English as the medium for instruction and improving the quality of English language teaching and assessment. This presents significant challenges for the English development of teachers and students alike.

The British Council is committed to meeting these challenges by promoting the advancement of English teaching and assessment around the world.

Aptis for Teachers is a new English assessment tool developed by the British Council which is designed specifically for the education sector. It can be integrated into existing systems and managed locally, enabling teachers’ English levels to be tracked over time and the success of training programmes to be measured effectively.

A candidate’s performance on Aptis for Teachers can be considered to closely reflect their understanding and use of English within educational contexts, making it extremely easy to pinpoint areas for improvement.

The test content of Aptis for Teachers relates specifically to teachers, and questions tap into themes and scenarios that teachers come across every day. As a result, questions are familiar to them, allowing them to focus purely on the language rather than the context of the questions.
Why choose Aptis for Teachers?

Who is Aptis for Teachers for?
Aptis for Teachers is a variant of Aptis, the British Council’s global English assessment service. It can be used by Ministries of Education and educational institutions around the world to test the English skills of their teachers or students in teacher training programmes.

Aptis for Teachers can be used to test:
• English teachers working in schools around the world
• Teachers of other subjects in schools around the world
• English teachers in large scale language programmes, including commercially-run programmes
• Students on teacher training or university programmes
• Other professionals working in educational contexts.

With Aptis for Teachers, you can:
• Benchmark English language skills of your teachers or students
• Conduct English language audits of your teachers or students and identify their training needs
• Use it at the beginning, middle and end of language development projects to evaluate effectiveness.

Test structure and delivery
Aptis for Teachers comprises a language knowledge module (grammar and vocabulary) which is combined with separate skills modules (listening, speaking, reading, and writing). Tests are taken in packages and different test components can be taken together.

Aptis for Teachers can be delivered by computer, pen and paper, or a mix of the two, allowing you to select the delivery mode most suitable for you – wherever you are in the world. You can manage the delivery and administration process in house, or the British Council can assist you.
The partnership with British Council in the delivery of English Language teaching and exam services at our university is a new philosophy and a new stage to accept the most up to date methods of learning languages. We used Aptis to test approximately 5500 students to determine the level of English and assign students to corresponding groups according to their CEFR levels.”

“We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for providing a solution to the situation in which our teachers found themselves (to have to prove their level of English proficiency and within a very tight time frame). We would also like to congratulate you all on your professionalism. All the teachers as well as ourselves are very pleased and satisfied with the experience.”
