Summary statement
The British Council inspected and accredited CLAN Language Schools, Edinburgh in July 2025. The Accreditation Scheme assesses the standards of management, resources and premises, teaching, welfare, and safeguarding under 18s and accredits organisations which meet the overall standard in each area inspected (see www.britishcouncil.org/education/accreditation for details).

This private language school offers courses in general English for adults (18+) and young people (16+) and vacation courses for under 18s.

Strengths were noted in the areas of student administration, premises and facilities and academic management. The inspection report stated that the organisation met the standards of the Scheme.

Introduction
CLAN Language Schools was formed in November 2023. The chief executive officer (CEO) has made reference to a year-round school in development in Edinburgh city centre to establish a year-round provision and, at present, uses rented office space in Edinburgh, leasing other centres as required. CLAN intends to run seasonal centres and bespoke courses in other UK locations as well as Edinburgh. The school has had some individual students, both online and in-company, since the provisional inspection in May 2024. The first summer courses ran this year at Edinburgh College Milton Road campus for groups and individuals aged 7–17, adults (18+) and young people (16+). The inspection took place over one and a half days. The two inspectors held meetings with the CEO, the head of operations and customer experience, the head of commercial performance (remote meeting), the head of academic development and delivery (academic manager) the accommodation and leisure manager at Edinburgh College, two activity leaders and one group leader. Focus group meetings were held with teachers and students. The three teachers timetabled, including the academic manager were observed individually by both inspectors in the classroom at the same time. One inspector visited the residential accommodation and spoke to a member of staff at the accommodation agency registered with the British Council.

T24 Exercises and activities were corrected at times, but often opportunities were missed to pick up on students' spoken errors and to provide follow-up practice. Teachers gave frequent encouragement and praise but at times students could have been challenged further.

T25 Lessons generally included tasks and activities to assess whether learning had taken place but sometimes opportunities to test out use of new language were not included.

T26 Generally teachers created a positive learning atmosphere and showed sensitivity to individual students. Students were generally engaged in the activities and their learning.
