Summary statement

The British Council inspected and accredited English Path Manchester in February and May 2023. The Accreditation Scheme assesses the standards of management, resources and premises, teaching, welfare, and safeguarding under 18s and accredits organisations which meet the overall standard in each area inspected (see www.britishcouncil.org/education/accreditation for details).

This private language school offers courses in general English for adults (18+).

Strengths were noted in the areas of strategic and quality management, staff management and teaching.

The inspection report stated that the organisation met the standards of the Scheme.

Introduction

English Path (EP) is a subsidiary company of Global Education Group, which also includes Global Banking Schools (GBS). GBS offer further and higher education courses across seven campuses in London, Leeds, Birmingham, and Manchester. GBS opened ten years ago and offers courses to domestic students as part of the government's programme of widening participation in higher education.

EP London, the first English Path school to open, was granted provisional accreditation in July 2021 and full accreditation following a supplementary inspection in November 2021. Three further schools opened in early 2022 in Leeds, Manchester and Birmingham and these were accredited by extension followed by spot checks in March 2022.

This was the first full inspection of English Path Manchester. It followed a remote inspection of head office and took place between full inspections of the Leeds and Birmingham schools respectively. The management structure, policies and procedures are common to all the English path schools.

The same two inspectors inspected head office and the three schools. The school moved into a new, purpose-built area in its current premises some three months after the main inspection and one of the inspectors visited remotely to report on this aspect of the provision.

The main inspection took one and a half days and an additional part day to view the new premises. Meetings were held with the head of academics and the head of operations both from head office; the HR officer (GBS); the school's academic co-ordinator and student services officer. Focus group meetings were held with teachers and students. All teachers timetabled to teach during the inspection were observed.

The accommodation was in homestays provided by an agency registered with British Council and no visits were made.

Address of main site/head office

Universal Square, Devonshire Street North, Manchester M12 6JH
Head Office: 891 Greenford Road, London UB6 0HE

Description of sites visited/observed

Universal Square is a very large site of serviced business accommodation, part of which is occupied by GBS, with EP Manchester occupying space as allocated. The school has recently moved into specifically designated accommodation on the first floor, allowing it to have a clearer identity and home within the much larger site. The area is accessible by both lift and stairs, and there are toilets immediately outside. English Path space consists of three classrooms, a teachers' room and an office, arranged at the end and along one side of a corridor. On the other side of the same corridor there is office and boardroom space occupied by another company. Both teachers and students are also able to use the facilities and amenities within the wider GBS accommodation.

Comments

M1 There is a very clear statement describing the goals and values of the wider organisation. Staff are well informed and managers clearly articulated both the goals and the process of creating them. A separate English Path team charter was developed at an all-schools' awayday event.

M4 Communication within and between the schools is very effective, and involve a wide range of different channels. Frequent meetings take place with head office staff, who also regularly visit the schools.

M5 The student response rate on questionnaires is very good and feedback is systematically annotated and analysed. Any lower scores are followed up and actions recorded. In addition, quarterly focus groups are held with students.

M6 In addition to the opportunities afforded by regular meetings, the appraisal system and a twice-yearly anonymous questionnaire, all staff have one-to-one meetings with their line manager at least monthly. Feedback is recorded and taken forward to the relevant forum. Responses from the anonymous questionnaires are shared with managers and discussed at management meetings.

Staff management and development	Area of strength

Comments

M8 All HR policies are overseen by the GBS HR department and are very clearly presented to staff at induction and in handbooks. Staff in all schools reported that they felt very well respected and supported by management.

M11 A thorough induction process is in place, with paid induction time and a comprehensive checklist for managers. Local and job-specific induction takes place as well as wider organisational induction procedures.

M13 As well as mandatory training, staff are offered a very good range of training and development opportunities. Continuing professional development (CPD) programmes are managed centrally, and all schools' events are delivered and available for all staff to access online. M29 Claims to accreditation are in line with Scheme requirements.	Met
Publicity consists of a website, a downloadable brochure, three promotional websites, and a range of social media. The website is considered the main medium.
M22 Although the publicity is accurate and generally gives rise to realistic expectations, it contains some potentially misleading claims and descriptions; for example, facilities are described as “unparalleled”, and there is a guarantee that students will reach their goals.
M28 Publicity makes reference to a highly qualified academic team, when this is not true of the whole team at all times.
