To get this formal document, you have to finish a training course together with other colleagues.

Completing this course usually takes between four to five working days in your first week.

During this period, a qualified instructor will operate the machine and give you some information about the machine.

After watching this introduction, you will be able to try it on your own.

When your first practice is complete, your instructor will give you a final observation.

Q4:

After entering this code, you should select 'Take work safety test' from the list.

This selection will open a page with some information about the test.

After reading this and hitting the green button, your online test starts immediately.

You have one hour to complete the test from the moment you begin.

Once this time is up, the system will store your results on your employee page.
